In early December 1964 when the research project was submitted to the DDS, I received a call from  Senior Training Officer, DDS, at which time he advised me that the DDS had approved the research project and he inquired as to what expenses I would incur. After discussion it was agreed that I would receive expenses of $100 per month to cover travel and per diem. This is not a flat $100 per month, just an approximation of the amount that would be needed.
